

A NEW NEW DEAL: HOW WE MAKE IT HAPPEN

An organizing workshop to build the movement for change based on human needs

WPA Workers, Chicago, Illinois by John Stenvall

Saturday, June 13

12:30 - 4:00 pm

Workers United Hall, 333 S. Ashland, Chicago

Join other Chicago area groups and activists working for peace, equality, social and economic justice, and be a part of a grassroots progressive movement to address the economic crisis. Help develop an agenda for connecting and fighting for workers' rights, the right to health care, stemming foreclosures, an end to wars and to make cuts in military spending. Plenary speakers will provide updates on four urgent and ongoing campaigns followed by breakout sessions that will focus on organizing around these issues.

WARS & MILITARISM

Michael McConnell, American Friends Service Committee

EMPLOYEE FREE CHOICE ACT

James Thindwa, Chicago Jobs with Justice

SINGLE-PAYER HEALTH CARE

Dr. Anne Scheetz, Physicians for a National Health Program

FORECLOSURES / MORTGAGES

Elce Redmond, South Austin Coalition of Community Councils

Following the speakers, break-out sessions will combine a discussion of two issues, in an effort to build a synergy across issues and among different constituents. Participants will be asked to create specific action plans to move each of the campaigns forward. Break-out sessions include:

Health Care / Employee Free Choice
Wars & Militarism / Mortgages and Foreclosures
