

PEACE FAIR AND TOWN HALL MEETING

What does peace look like?

Saturday, Sept. 10, 2005 • Noon to 5 pm

Scoville Park, corner of Oak Park Ave and Lake Street, Oak Park, IL
Free Admission – Open to everyone in the Chicagoland area!

Peace Trade Show

An open Fair for ideas and learning. The first ever Chicagoland Peace Trade Show offers attendees a chance to see dozens of Chicago area peace groups showcasing their answers to the question, “What does peace look like?”

Entertainment

Musicians, performance artists, dancers, poets and other entertainers will bring their special talents to the Fair in support of building peace.

Town Hall Public Voice

Come and discuss your questions about peace and justice with your fellow Chicagoans and with elected officials. Congressional Representatives, State Legislators and local officials are invited to join us.

Children's Activities

The Fair is a family friendly event where children are invited to learn the lessons of peace through activities including storytelling, sign-making, songs and games.
