RALLY & MARCH

*December 8, 2002
2:00 p.m.
Scoville Park*

- Ⓢ December 8th is a day when residents of neighborhoods all around Chicago and the suburbs will be participating in pro-peace rallies, marches and religious services to express their opposition to the planned war in Iraq.
- Ⓢ December 8th is also a critical date on the timeline for war. The United Nations has given this day as a deadline for Saddam Hussein to declare all of his weapons of mass destruction.
- Ⓢ Please joins us for a rally and march, and add your voice to our call for peace.
- Ⓢ For more information about the Chicagoland United for Peace events visit www.grassrootsvoices.org
